

GOOGLE SCAN TO EMAIL ALERT

Google is requiring Gmail account users, when scanning to email, to use a Google App Password. If you don't use the Google App Password, your current copier will cease to send emails causing end-users to believe there is an issue with the copier.

Please follow the links below for instructions to correct the issue.

KONICA

HP

XEROX